

Thomas V. Dunlap, CFA

Tom Dunlap is a vice president of Loomis, Sayles & Company and an investment analyst for the global fixed income team, focusing on currency and duration management. He joined Loomis Sayles in 2011 and has 10 years of investment industry experience. Previously, Tom was a client portfolio analyst supporting efforts for institutional investors and consultants for global bond, global credit, and emerging market fixed income strategies. Prior to this, he was a fixed income operations analyst. Before joining Loomis Sayles, Tom was a performance analyst at Wilshire Associates, covering asset allocation attribution and assisting with manager research. He earned a BA in economics from Denison University and an MBA from the Carroll School of Management at Boston College.